

FILM STAR TO VISIT ROCK ISLAND

MISS LILA LEE.

Miss Lee, who is famous in vaudeville as well as in motion pictures and who is appearing in the biggest of the Paramount releases, will be a personal visitor in Rock Island Wednesday, Dec. 22. Miss Lee will be at the Majestic all day and will meet motion picture enthusiasts in the lobby of the theatre. She will also make several talks on her work.

Variety Bill at the Palace, Moline, First Half of Week

New bill at the Palace, Moline, starting tomorrow matinee, brings variety, featuring Ernest Anderson and Marjorie Burt in "Home, Sweet Home," and are admirably fitted with a medium to bring out their pronounced ability and to give each an opportunity for individual characterization. Miss Burt appears as the clinging vine type of an adoring wife, who submits to the frequent morning grouch of her stern and exacting husband. How she manages to take the affairs of her home into her own hands, conquer the temperamental spouse and set her house in order, is best seen to be appreciated. While there are many moments of hilarious comedy throughout the episode, a being of deep satire is apparent, lifting the offering to a higher standard than is usual in domestic comedies of the vaudeville stage.

Dandy is a superlative of double meaning. It implies a standard of merit and a meaning of appearance. Both meanings are applicable to the Amaranth Sisters who are indeed a dandy dance duo, with good voices, thrown in for good measure. They are decidedly attractive in appearance, dance a wide variety of dances and have a different way of putting over songs.

Wellington and Sylvia, a clever comedy juggler and a pretty woman who specializes in crayon portraits, comprise this duo of entertainers who present a unique combination offering which they bill under the title of eccentric manipulation, consisting of comedy juggling and artistic crayon pictures.

The Elroy Sisters present a series of dances on skates, which includes some of the most difficult and graceful steps ordinarily done without rollers. Miss Clara Elroy holds the world's record for the toe spin. They are assisted by Murray Mencher and perform their evolutions in a special setting. Other Orpheum acts on the bill are the ultra-humorous, Valentine Vex, in his ventriloquist classic, "The Clubman," Jimmy Dunn, that funny, foolish fellow, and the usual variety of musical and topical acts of the day.

The fourth episode of the thrilling serial, "King of the Circus," will be shown Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

"The Dream Cheater" Classic Adaption at Rialto Theatre

Suppose a mysterious Persian potentate picked you up in his limousine at a time when you were down and out, took you to his beautifully furnished apartment and gave you a magic talisman, explaining that the possession of this charm meant the realization of any wish you might make; that henceforth anything in the world would be yours for the asking—the girl you love, riches or power. And then suppose he told you that after a given number of wishes your life would be forfeited. Which would you choose—the charm with all its brilliant promise or poverty and life?

J. Warren Kerrigan is called upon to face this momentous problem in his latest Brunton production, "The Dream Cheater," an adaptation of Honore de Balzac's great classic, "The Magic Skin."

Go to the Rialto theatre Sunday and see if the handsome hero's decision amounts to what you would have done in the same circumstances.

"The Lottery Man," New Wallace Reid Play, at Black Hawk

Wallace Reid's latest starring vehicle is "The Lottery Man," a Paramount-Artcraft picture, which is coming to the Black Hawk theatre tomorrow. It is a pictorialization of Rida Johnson Young's play of the same name. Originally produced at the Bijou Theatre, New York, in 1910, with Cyril Scott in the stellar role, the comedy scored an emphatic hit and later followed its long sojourn on Broadway by an extended road tour with several companies. It was hailed in all sections of the country as the most entertaining farce of the day. All its breeziness and fun-making qualities are said to have been retained in the screen version, and Wallace Reid, in the role of the chance-taking hero, gives a spirited performance. The story concerns a young man who, to pay a debt, impulsively starts a lottery with himself offered as prize to the woman holding the lucky coupon. Wanda Hawley and Harrison Ford are included in the cast.

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE. Paris, Dec. 15.—The chamber of deputies voted confidence in the government, 493 to 65, after discussing the resignation of Andrew LeFevre, the war minister.
